

John R. Keill,
Belfast, June 28, 1867.

P.

It is so good as to write to inform me whether I may expect you, and about what time..

and
the
of

I & daughter will be rejoiced to have you at our house in Hollywood, near the Sea, for whatever time
you can spend with us & should you have friends with you we shall find them sleeping
accommodation &c &c

I hope your health
has benefited from your travelling, for so far. I am Dear friend Very affectionately
John K. Child

103
Belfast June 28. 1867

My dear Mr. Garrison,

How much I regret that I cannot be in London for the meeting in your honour!

I have been hoping to hear that you will pay Ireland a visit but I have not learned whether you will be able to do so or not. If you do, there is no home in which you will receive a
warmer welcome than in mine - My wife